

FAQ

Q: How do I submit?

A: All abstract submissions are required to be completed online through the AMSA2018 Canyons to Coast abstract submission portal. No emailed submissions will be accepted. Click below link to access the portal:

<https://mci australia.eventsair.com/amsa2018/abstract-submission>

Q: When will authors be notified of submission acceptance or otherwise?

A: Authors will be notified in writing of the acceptance or otherwise of their submission late March 2018.

Q: What type of presentations are available?

A: Oral presentations and poster presentations. There will be a restriction of one oral presentation per participant, but a poster presentation can be given in addition to an oral presentation. You have to submit separate abstracts for oral and poster presentations.

Q: When will the conference registration open?

A: It is anticipated that registration will open in February 2018. Please ensure that you regularly check the conference website for updates.

Q: Are presenters required to register for the AMSA2018 Canyons to Coast conference?

A: Yes. As a presenter you are required to register and pay to attend the conference. To ensure the integrity of the program, and guarantee the program will be as advertised once released, we will require all presenters to register and commit to attending the conference. Any presenters not registered for the conference will not have their abstract included in the program.

Q: What are the key dates that I need to be aware of?

A: Please note the key dates as follows:

Abstract submission open	November 2017
Abstract submission close	9 February 2018
Authors notified	March 2018

Terms and Conditions

- If the abstract is accepted, I confirm that I will register for the conference.
- To ensure the integrity of the program and guarantee the program will be as advertised once released, all presenters are required to register and commit to attending the conference. Any presenters not registered for the conference will not have their abstract included in the program.
- I am aware that if my abstract is selected, I provide consent for my presentation slides and photos taken during my presentation to be used and published by AMSA, including being provided to delegates of the conference.
- I am aware that my abstract will be available for delegates to view on the conference app during the conference.